

JCC of Allentown presents The Ultimate Adventure Family Fun Event!

Sunday, July 27, 2008 11:00am

Watson Adventures in Historic Philadelphia as seen in the hit movie National Treasure

"What unusual delegate outside Carpenter's Hall may be the representative from Petysylvania?"

Answer: A cat, a painting on a sign"

Want to have some fun this summer
AND learn about American history?

THE HUNT IS ON!

Join other families and Watson Adventures on a family-friendly scavenger hunt as you search for answers to intriguing questions about Old Philadelphia by visiting historical sites in and around Independence National Historical Park in Philadelphia. Our Watson Adventure guide will provide a set of clues and you'll have 90 minutes to find the answers by visiting the sites, all within walking distance. Expect a tricky question or two!

If you think you know Old Philadelphia, then prepare to be surprised. This tour reveals the most curious and quirkiest aspects of Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell, Carpenter's Hall (where the Continental Congress first met), Elfreth's Alley, and museums featuring Ben Franklin, portraits of Founding Fathers (and Mothers) and the military.
